Wacousta Block Party – "It's the best party in Wacousta!"

Join us for an unforgettable day of fun, food, and community spirit at the Wacousta Block Party! This family-friendly event features food trucks, live music, and an incredible lineup of local artists, small farms, makers, and community organizations.

This year, we're adding even more magic with a visit from real princesses, face painting, touch-a-truck, and a balloon artist! Whether you're here for the delicious eats, unique shopping, or exciting kids' activities, there's something for everyone.

More than just a celebration, the Wacousta Block Party is also a fundraiser for the Wacousta Cooperative Preschool Scholarship Fund, helping provide tuition assistance to local families. So come out, support a great cause, and experience why this truly is the best party in Wacousta!

Visitors may park across the street at the old Wacosuta Elementary School or any of our local parks. Shuttle service will be provided by Clinton Transit from both Heritage Park and Gloria Miller Park for your convenience.

? Location: Wacousta Cooperative Preschool 9180 W. Herbison Rd., Eagle

? Free Admission!

Grand Ledge, MI 48837

06:00 PM - 07:00 PM EST

Stefanie Black, 5176277014

marketing@gladl.org

We're making art inspired by the work of Italian painter Michelangelo!

We'll learn a bit about Michelangelo before we get started creating. One of the things Michelangelo is famous for is painting the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in Rome. So we're going to create like him by drawing or painting on a "ceiling" by getting underneath our tables and chairs. Paint will be washable, but wearing clothes that can get messy is recommended.
